WORKSHOP ANNOUNCEMENT

T_EX Implementors' Workshop

Thursday–Friday, May 14–15, 1981

Stanford University, Stanford, California

A Workshop for present and prospective implementors of T_EX will be held at Stanford under the sponsorship of TUG. The first day, Thursday, May 14, will be devoted to technical presentations. Topics for discussion include:

> Implementations of T_EX
> Transportation of T_EX among systems
> Output devices

On the second day, Friday, May 15, informal sessions for architecture groups will be arranged. There will also be demonstrations of T_EX for new users by Don Knuth and others of the Stanford group.

A fee will be charged for attendance at this Workshop, with proceeds going to TUG. A form is enclosed, giving details of registration.

Program details will be available within a few weeks. To register, return the enclosed form to the T_EX Users Group, c/o American Mathematical Society, P.O. Box 6248, Providence, R.I. 02940.

Participants should make their own arrangements for accommodations. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Palo Alto Holiday Inn, 625 El Camino Real, Palo Alto, Calif. 94305, (415) 328-2800. When requesting reservations, refer to the T_EX Users Group; call before April 29. (An effort will be made to locate low-cost hotel accommodations as well; further information may be available later.)
